

CATHERINE MOLLOY INTRODUCTION

Catherine Molloy is a qualified Communication Expert and Keynote Speaker who specialises in the areas of Sales Service and Self-Leadership for business and personal growth.

Catherine utilises her 25 years of business acumen to empower, inspire and motivate individuals and teams, through effective learning techniques

Catherine provides an insight into the hidden side of communication, conscious leadership and the art of sales. She has developed simple and effective strategies that when implemented can immediately produce measurable and lasting results.

She was a past winner in the Australian Institute of Management Business Excellence Awards and has recently been confirmed as an award winner in the prestigious International 2017 Stevie Awards for Customer Service.

Through her professional and interactive presentations Catherine delivers mindful learning and business solutions that work for local, national and international clients.

So without further ado PLEASE WELCOME CATHERINE MOLLOY!

